Hi Molly. Just following up to let you know that I haven't had a chance to look into this yet. I'll do my best to get to it before I leave for my trip on 8/1.

Hi Liz,

I am sharing on behalf of Billy and Patrick the attached salary procedures from our partner in Egypt. Our collaborators have taken on additional salary as a result of their participation in our project, but as the attached document, this is standard institutional procedure, so is not problematic in our view.

We are sharing as I believe Jonna has requested to be kept informed of unconventional personnel procedures such as these.

Molly
